

Mortgages as an Asset Class

Mittwoch, 24. April 2024, 11:00 - 11:40 UHR

English

Referent(en): Matteo Bernardoni

Mortgages in Switzerland are increasingly granted by institutional investors (e.g. banks, insurers, pension funds, funds, investment foundations) to borrowers through (digital) platforms. Institutional investors can therefore newly access this interesting asset-class with unique risk / return profile even more effectively and efficiently. During this session the USPs of mortgages as asset class, the functioning of mortgage platforms, as well as the UBS solutions in this domain will be presented and discussed.
