

Daniel Trzesniak

Partner AI and Data FSO CH, Technology Consulting, Ernst & Young AG

Daniel is a Partner in EY's AI and Data Team in Zurich, driving transformative technology projects and promoting innovation in data engineering and analytics.

As a former partner at an IT Services company, he led Product Strategy, increasing market share and pioneering innovative data-driven software solutions.

His diverse background also includes roles as an Actuary, Underwriter, and Structurer at a Global Reinsurance company, contributing to his diverse expertise.

Daniel holds a PhD in Chemistry from ETH Zurich and a MSc in Physics as well as a BSc in Molecular Sciences from USP São Paulo.

He is a Licensed Scrum Master and member of the Swiss Association of Actuaries.

He's fluent in English and Portuguese, proficient in German, Spanish and Italian and has a good understanding in French.

Programm

ZEIT	Donnerstag, 03. April 2025, 10:00 - 10:45 UHR , Seminarraum 2
THEMA	The role of an actuary in the AI world: A journey through data, technology, governance and talent
REFERENT(EN)	Daniel Trzesniak
